

INTEGRATED MANAGEMENT SYSTEM POLICY

ATALIAN Integrated Management Systems Policy Statement has been established in line with the ability to manage all our processes in a way that meets the demands and expectations of our customers at the highest level.

In accordance with this purpose;

- Top management ensures the establishment of a customer-oriented system, separation of the necessary resources, and leads the effective participation of employees,
- Design and continuously improve the service processes in accordance with legal regulations and customer needs,
- Commits to provide service that maintains customer satisfaction and loyalty with an organizational structure that is innovative, open to change and supports team work,
- Manages the occupational safety processes in accordance with the legal regulations and takes necessary precautions to train our employees and ensure that they work without endanger the health and safety of all parties,
- In order to enable to reduce environmental impacts in all service processes, train all our employees to create an effective environmental awareness,
- ATALIAN ensures the efficient use of resources in all of the processes, makes employees aware of the consumption of natural resources and waste reduction,
- Ensures and encourages the suppliers to operate in accordance with the legal regulations, our integrated management system and the basic principles of our company.

Our mission is to provide our service that meets the expectations of our customers without compromising the environmental and occupational safety standards.

BARIS UNALP
CEO